Testimonials

1. "I have the privilege to be associated with Stuti Vani Foundation and have always admired their sincerity and hard work. They ensure that every contribution we make reaches the appropriate person and also ensure that we have a personal connect with the beneficiary. The trust and hope with which we make the contribution is well guarded by this organisation. Keep up the great work and hope many others can benefit by your noble work"

Dr. Mallika Ramachandran, Pune

2. "It's such an honour and privilege to even know that some one out there is doing such commendable job selflessly to work for underprivileged children in our society who are cut off from public in general The wonderful efforts taken by the Stuti Vani foundation team is worth an applaud wherein they connect people like us to such wonderful kid's with little contribution which go a long way. The trust that every single penny goes for uplifting the society who needs our assistance is very fulfilling. Keep up the good work."

Mr. Manmeet Bakshi, Noida

3. "I'm deeply appreciative of the contribution made by this great moment. One of the most beautiful things for the heart is to see the hope glittering in the eyes of children who are benefited by Stuti Vani foundation. Wish the moment spread across the boundaries."

Dr. Vikas B Patted, Bangalore

4. "I am very pleased to say that my experience of associating with Stuti Vani Foundation has been excellent. My utmost respect and appreciation for the excellent work Abhishek and his team are carrying out in uplifting underprivileged children. The foundation is investing in a better future for India by providing opportunities to needy and deserving children. I am honored to be a part of the organization in a small way and shall try to remain so. My good wishes to Stuti Vani Foundation to continue reaching out to children who need and deserve them the most. I also sincerely urge everyone to keep contributing to this foundation who are the "messiah" the nation requires! I am sure with more funds coming there way, they will do wonders for the society!"

Mrs. Pratishtha Akkanawru, Pune

5. "Excellent work done by team Stuti Vani foundation. The way the health camps are organised n other activities are done by them is really amazing. I am so happy to be connected with them . Wishing them good luck for all their future endeavors."

Mrs. Meenakshi Bakshi, Teacher, Noida

6. I always dreamt of working in the social sector and helping people who are not so privileged. Stuti Vani Foundation have huge aspirations and motivations, and plugging in the right amount of knowledge, dedication, and people helps them achieve it. The smallest of the things| can make you smile. Making someone else happy, or bringing more knowledge and learning to someone else life, can be an experience worth cherishing. When you get to hear the success stories of people from Stuti Vani Foundation and worked with, it will make you feel proud of your own work and efforts.

Mr. Nitesh Gupta, Pune

7. It's a wonderful initiative with immense amount of honesty put into it. When I came across the efforts put in by them for the upliftment of the society especially the children It made my heart go out and do my bit as well as an individual. All the best Team StutuVani. You guys are doing amazing work.

Mrs. Neha Bakshi, Delhi

8. When I first came to know about the stuti-vani foundation some 2 years back,I felt happy that someone is giving his best for the upliftment of the better half of the society. Mr. Abhishek Kumar and his team took the initiative and paved the way for a bright future for so many girls. Being associated with the foundation provides me the great pleasure that my little contribution is making a big difference somewhere.
Also, kudos to Abhishek and his team and best of luck for the future of his organization

Mr. Hammad Sheikh, Lucknow

We deeply thank board members, volunteers, sponsors and everyone associated with the Stuti-Vani Foundation. The start is slow but our intentions are very clear to work and give back to the society. We pledge to work with full commitment, transparency and determination.
